"LADIES AT PLAY"

GL adstone 6901

SOME PRESS COMMENTS ON "LADIES AT PLAY"— FIRST NATIONAL

Herbert Moulton, Los Angeles Times: . . . Most of the merriment is caused by the two maiden aunts from Vermont, played by Louise Fazenda and Ethel Wales. Their work is immense and when it comes to pilfering scenes, they are merciless. Both have everything their own way whenever they appear on the screen.

Hal Rorke, Los Angeles Illustrated News: . . . Ethel Wales deserves particular mention for exploitation advertising fails to accord her prominence which is her due as Aunt Sarah . . . . Nobody finished any farther in front . . .

James Starr, Los Angeles Record: . . . Midway in the picture Louise Fazenda and Ethel Wales hit their stride, and from then on entertainment of surpassing quality grows upon the seeker after delightful recreation . . .

Mordaunt Hall, New York Times: Louise Fazenda and Ethel Wales make facial sacrifices in their clever impersonation of the spinster aunts . . .

John S. Cohen, Jr., New York Sun: . . . Ethel Wales and Louise Fazenda brighten long sequences in "Ladies at Play" . . . The hilarious presence of the Misses Wales and Fazenda— the Beery-Hatton team of the weaker but stronger sex. . . . The team of Fazenda and Wales— tickles one to a pleasant death . . . I would again call attention to the clever, satirical, highly humorous performance given by Ethel Wales and Louise Fazenda . . . .

Home Furnishings for "The Moderns"

OF Southern California, must meet certain critical standards — must be smart and interesting, whether the style be quaint and simple, richly impressive in the period manner, or have the verve of the most recent art moderne creations.

THE continually augmented displays at Barker Bros. provide most successfully all these varying notes.

Diamonds

For nearly half a century, Los Angeles has looked to Montgomery Bros. for beautiful diamonds and diamond pieces. Through the quality, dependability and consistent pricing of their stones, Montgomery Bros. holds the complete confidence of its clientele.

Among the smart new pieces are circle brooches, diamond studded, in unusual effects, diamond bar pins with an emerald cut diamond in the center and fifty-one diamonds and fifty-one sapphires surrounding, and a remarkable collection of diamond rings from $75 to $5000.

You are cordially invited to see this outstanding collection whether you have an immediate purchase in mind or not.

ORPHEUM CIRCUIT
NEW ORPHEUM THEATRE
LOS ANGELES, CALIF.

December 28th, 1926.

The Standard Casting Directory, Inc.,
616 Taft Building,
1680 N. Vine Street,
Hollywood, California.

Dear Sir:

The Standard Casting Directory was responsible for my first picture engagement. Since then I have advertised in it continuously and have worked continuously. This is more than a coincidence.

All good wishes.

Yours very truly,

Sarah Padden

The Standard Casting Directory, Inc.,
616 Taft Building,
Hollywood, Calif.

Having been a subscriber to the Standard Casting Directory from almost the time of it's inception, and profiting thereby, I am of the opinion that this book is the only dignified medium by which the Actor is presented and represented to the Director and Producer, outside perhaps of personal representation.

Every wish for another prosperous New Year to the "Standard" and to all whom it graphically presents between it's covers.

Sincerely,

December 26th,
1 9 2 6.

Standard Casting Directory,

Hollywood, California.

Gentlemen:

It is with the utmost sincerity that we can commend you upon the usefulness and excellent appearance of the directory which you have developed with such consistent progress. Coming, as we did, from the East last year, it would have been extremely difficult to handle the casting of our pictures under pressure for time without the aid of your publication which we consider a model of its kind.

We also believe and consider it the best medium from the point of view of the artist, as evidenced by the fact that we are carrying a page with you for Gardner James whom we have under contract.

With best wishes for your continued success, we remain

Very truly yours,

INSPIRATION PICTURES, INC.,
J. Boyce Smith
General Manager.

Standard Casting Directory.

Dear Mr. Hungate:

Allow me to congratulate the Standard upon the twelve months of service which it has just added to film history.

To say that your Directory is an invaluable aid to the average player is superfluous. Its work has made it a sentiment as well as an institution.

To be out of the Standard these days is very like being out of pictures.

Very truly.

Otto Matiesen.

LUCY BEAUMONT

Now playing in "The Beloved Rogue" with John Barrymore at the Criterion Theatre

George Warren—San Francisco Chronicle (Feb. 21st): Lucy Beaumont, as Francois' mother, adds a touch of artistic beauty that softens the picture of that reckless, cruel time when human life meant so little. Miss Beaumont is fine in whatever she undertakes.

Idwal Jones—San Francisco Examiner (Feb. 21st.): Nor should one overlook the acting of Lucy Beaumont as the plagued mother of Villon, and her deportment in the best handled scene of all, where she drives away the foul bird from the stake at which the body of Joan of Arc was consumed.

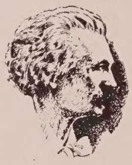
Steinway–Duo-Art

REPRODUCING PIANO



"The Duo-Art is without question greatly superior to any other instrument of its kind."
—I. J. PADEREWSKI

"I consider the Duo-Art the most notable invention in the annals of music."
—PERCY GRAINGER

TO possess a Steinway Grand—supreme achievement of the piano building art:—To possess the power of summoning, at any moment, the great pianists of the age to play your Steinway for you:—

This is what you receive when you purchase a Steinway Duo-Art Reproducing Piano.

And, because your Steinway is a Duo-Art Steinway, not only the great concert pianists are always waiting for you, but the great dance pianists, operatic and ballad pianists, the great accompanists for voice and solo instrument, as well. Your kingdom of music is wide as the world—varied as the tastes of a thousand people.

And with it all, the pride of possessing the finest pianoforte ever known—the most perfect and wonderful reproducing instrument ever devised by man.

"The Duo-Art is supreme in presenting a true likeness of the pianist's playing." —JOSEF HOFMANN

"The Duo-Art is a superb contribution to the art of music."
—ALFRED CORTOT

CUES TO CHIC

IT TAKES artistic cleverness, good form and style to produce that one coveted quality — chic.

BARKER BROS. know how to attain homes of chic. Know how to get that air of je ne sais quoi that spells distinction.

THEIR FURNITURE—chosen with discriminating care—runs the gamut from authentic period styles to sophisticated designs entirely modern.

AND NOW one more style convenience is added—a tiny bazaar, "The Charm Shop," for the beautiful things essential to feminine charm. Sophisticated women will find many of the secrets of chic here.

Your Precious Gems of a By Gone Time Reconstructed Into Today's Smart Styles

HIDDEN away in your jewel case, may be a gem or jewelry piece which belongs to a past time—a gem that does not smartly fit in with the present mode, but which you particularly cherish. Why not bring it up to date, our master craftsmen can do it for you! Through years of experience they have become unusually skilled in this work of jewelry reconstruction! Consult them now, they have a variety of ways for transforming old jewels into new forms!

No other stones half so beautiful, no other stones half so precious, as

Diamonds

For nearly half a century, Los Angeles has looked to Montgomery Bros. for beautiful diamonds and diamond pieces. Through the quality, dependability and consistent pricing of their stones, Montgomery Bros. holds the complete confidence of its clientele.

Among the smart new pieces are circle brooches, diamond studded, in unusual effects, diamond bar pins with an emerald cut diamond in the center and fifty-one diamonds and fifty-one sapphires surrounding, and a remarkable collection of diamond rings from $75 to $5000.

You are cordially invited to see this outstanding collection whether you have an immediate purchase in mind or not.

Dear Mr. Blaine:-

I want to thank you a very great deal, for the nicest wrap I have ever been fortunate enough to own. It came out to me late yesterday afternoon, and ever since, I've been wondering whether it was really me, or just a dream.

I can't tell you how much
I appreciate it, and the personal attention you gave me. If anything, its more beautiful than I had expected, and that's setting quite a record. Incidentally, it fits perfectly, and is snug and warm, and I could tell you how feel in it!

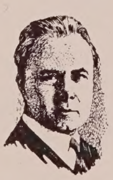
—I. J. PADEREWSKI



"The Duo-Art is supreme in presenting a true likeness of the pianist's playing."
—JOSEF HOFMANN

TO possess a Steinway Grand—supreme achievement of the piano building art:—To possess the power of summoning, at any moment, the great pianists of the age to play your Steinway for you:—

One Day at Barker Bros.

A few memos from a typical busy day—

...A charming European girl finds (with joy) the signature of a friend, one of the Primavera artists of Paris, on a bit of pottery in the Modes and Manners Shop (3rd Floor).

...A certain gifted cinema lady enjoys a facial treatment in the Marie Earle Salon (11th floor); proclaims it "the most satisfying ever."

...An important personage from Honolulu visits "The Patio" (6th floor)—orders four of those big, old-looking jars with tile insets for his garden in Hawaii.

...Glorious new Haori Coats arrive at the Oriental Arts Shop—recent selections of our representative, whose buying trip in China and Japan has been a succession of excitements.

Without Extravagance

For sheer charm and luxury the fox scarf represents the utmost value in the incidental furs for Spring! In hues as varied as they are lovely—in soft tinted monotones—or in those pelts of natural beauty—there are foxes for every preference, much to be desired and reasonable in price.

A Statement to Members of Sea Breeze Beach Club

OWING to the unfavorable publicity given to the financial and other difficulties of certain Beach Clubs, the executives of the Sea Breeze Holding Company feel warranted in publishing the facts hereinafter contained. The publication of these facts, we believe, must convince the most skeptical that the policy adopted by the executives of the Sea Breeze Holding Company is correct and is based on sound business judgment.

First: The Sea Breeze Holding Company was organized for the sole purpose of building and operating a Club—not a Hotel.

Second: The entire building and equipment cost of Sea Breeze Beach Club is approximately One-Third of the cost entailed by other Beach Clubs.

Third: No memberships were sold without an income feature.

Fourth: Sea Breeze Beach Club was organized and began the selling of membership in June, 1926. The remarkable progress that has been made in practically eight months' time, under adverse conditions, is shown in the following statement:

A—Moneys already spent for the following items: rental of property; bulkhead; excavating; Pan Pacific Construction Company foundation contract; Architect's fees; Contractor and labor; taxes and other minor expenses for property	$ 55,000.00
B—Cash on hand and still due on memberships, approximately	215,000.00
C—Service Charge due upon notification of formal opening of Club, approximately	140,000.00
Total	$410,000.00
D—Cost of Building, including furnishings and equipment, approximately	300,000.00
E—Approximate amount of moneys to be left on hand as working cash to operate the Club	$110,000.00

The finances of the Club have been handled very carefully and a conservative policy employed in building operations. The major portion of the Club should be ready for use by the members by June 1st. This conservative policy will enable us to complete our program WITHOUT THE NECESSITY OF BORROWING MONEY.

MEMBERS AND THE PUBLIC ARE INVITED TO VISIT THE PROPERTY ON PALISADES BEACH ROAD AT THE FOOT OF CALIFORNIA AVENUE, SANTA MONICA, AND SEE FOR THEMSELVES THE BUILDING ACTIVITIES.

The executives feel that inasmuch as they are doing their part to make the Sea Breeze Beach Club all you expect to find in a high-class Club, they are entitled to the full support of every member. Consider Sea Breeze Beach Club—YOUR CLUB. Do your part to make Sea Breeze Beach Club the foremost institution of its kind in this community.

The Modes & Manners Shop

...has received

LITTLE BRONZE FIGURES by leading European Sculptors — some signed originals, some perfect reproductions. All have been successful in the Paris salons.

FASCINATING pottery creations—fabulous animals, vases with abstract designs—others in the manner of ancient negro masks.

MODERN furniture created in Barker Bros.' studios—lounge tables and chairs—odd, convenient desks, cabinets, dressing tables.

FOR MORE than 14 years Cadillac has been the leader among fine cars—Today its leadership is intensified, because two-thirds of all the really fine cars built and sold in America are Cadillacs.

A Sun-Maid resource the balance sheet never shows

IN ITS assets Sun-Maid lists plants and properties, machines and stocks on hand; credits, surpluses — all the material things which measure solvency.

Yet one of its great resources is never included: The unusual stability of Sun-Maid's grower-members.

When war upset far older companies and fluctuating post-war prices made trouble for the strongest institutions, Sun-Maid growers did not give up in despair.

Rather they mended their organization, met troublous times with better management. That management in turn perfected products, expanded markets.

Thus the stability of these business farmers has been the foundation upon which a mighty industry is built. Their worth does not appear on Sun-Maid's balance sheet, but certainly their steadfast spirit has aided the cooperative company in its task of making Sun-Maid raisins the choice of the world's housewives.

"De Saldo" in "The Love of Sunya"—with Gloria Swanson-United Artists

Louella O. Parsons—L. A. Examiner: "There is no one in the entire cast any more interesting than Andre De Segurola, the Metropolitan Opera star. It is fitting that he should be cast as De Saldo, the impresario, and his portrayal is one of the high-lights in the entire picture."

* * *

Herbert Cruickshank—N. Y. Morning Telegraph: "Exquisite surprises are in the picture. The characterization of Andre De Segurola, former singer and impresario, who made De Saldo, one of the heavies, a vibrant being as lustily alive as De Segurola himself. It is his first picture—but certainly won't be his last."

William Davidson

Monroe Lathrop, in the L. A. Express, said of Mr. Davidson's performance of "Inspector Killian" in "The Donovan Affair" at the Wilkes Vine St. Theatre:

> "The keynote throughout is carried by William Davidson as 'Killian', the police inspector. Davidson puts a new and pleasing strain into an often hackneyed character. He combines an air of shrewdness with one of more refinement than the average actor gives to the rough 'Bull' character. In every way a capable player with thought behind his work."

Guy Price, in the L. A. Herald, said in his criticism of "The Donovan Affair":

> "William B. Davidson has the role of the detective and by his adroit handling of his central figure, he stands out the more prominently among the players. It is full of what actors call 'meat,' and Mr. Davidson, figuratively speaking, 'eats it up'."

Corrado has been on the screen for years, yet has received little attention, while, as a matter of fact, he is a remarkably fine actor. He possesses a Latin fire that imbues his performances with a charm not often seen in the average actor. He understands the gentle art of pantomime.—Whitney Williams, L. A. Times.

STEINWAY

THE INSTRUMENT OF THE IMMORTALS

It is the way with art that once we know and love the best—we cannot be satisfied with any other than the best. You will find your deepest satisfaction in the music of the immortals—men such as Wagner, Liszt and our own MacDowell—surely when you buy a piano, you can be satisfied only with the instrument which these men used themselves, "The Instrument of the Immortals." Once your fingers touch the keyboard of a Steinway—once you know the eloquence of its response—once you drink the beauty of its tone, for you there can be no other piano. You would be just as unwilling to own another instrument as Paderewski would be, or Rachmaninoff, or Hofmann. Each time you hear the Steinway its voice means more to you. With each new year it grows into your life. Is it any wonder that so many people say: "It is the dream of my life to own a Steinway"?

For those who want the best in reproducing pianos—the DUO-ART in the STEINWAY supplies this need. For the very fact that STEINWAY & SONS chose the DUO-ART Reproducing medium for their renowned instrument attests its perfect reproducing qualities.

Steinway Upright from $950 up, Grand $1575 up
Steinway Duo-Art Grands from $4075 up.

For Gifts that Brides will Treasure

Solid silver expresses finely the sense for social tradition—As the gift for the Bride, it brings the ameinty of other days, with all the fine associations that go with white napery and crystal, candles, flowers and gracious hospitality.

Montgomery Bros.—solid silver holloware also affords correct and lovely gifts for friends to give the bride—Tea or Afternoon Dinner Coffee Sets, Vegetable Dishes, fancy single pieces, Berry Bowls, Dessert Cups and Center Pieces.

ANDRE BERANGER

"ONE OF THE MOST BRILLIANT ARTISTS ON THE SCREEN TODAY"

—John S Cohen, Jr. in The New York Sun

"HE'S A RIOT!"

Dorothy Herzog in The New York Daily Mirror

NEW YORK:

"ANDRE BERANGER Strikes A Distinctly New Note In The Film Scale. "This Individual Is A Barrel Of Fun. "A Comedy Featuring Him Ought To Be Grand."

—Quinn Martin in The New York World

CHICAGO:

"It Is Of ANDRE BERANGER I Wish To Speak In A Paragraph Apart. "He Is Different; He Is Fresh; He Is Able. "I Hereby Discover Him In The Name Of His Majesty King Public."

—T. O. Service in The Chicago Herald

LOS ANGELES:

"I Have Never Seen A Funnier Human Being Than ANDRE BERANGER Who Plays With A Seriousness That Proves That Comedy Is No Laughing Matter. "I Shall Not Attempt To Analyze Beranger's Claim To Fame Other Than To Say His Work Reduced Me To A State Of Near Hysteria."

—Louella O. Parsons in The Los Angeles Examiner

"Andre Beranger

Manages To Establish Himself As One Of The Most Delightful Comedians Extant. "If Some Big Screen Organization Doesn't Sign Him Up At Once You Will Never Be Able To Convince Me Again That These Picture Magnates Are The Shrewd Fellows Popular Legend Suspects Them Of Being."

—Richard Watts, Jr. in The New York Herald-Tribune

"BERANGER IS READY FOR AND DESERVES THE CINEMATIC EIDELWEISS"

—Whitney Williams in The Los Angeles Times

Excellent Acting In "Small Bachelor"

"PERHAPS I would not have been so severe in criticizing American pictures for lacking even performances, as I did in the review of Aftermath, if I had known when I wrote it that I was so soon to see one of our own pictures that contained nothing but excellent acting. It is The Small Bachelor, directed by William Seiter for Universal. Bill Seiter, who had so much to do with making Reg Denny popular, is very happy in his treatment of light comedy. He has a deft touch and a lively sense of humor. In this picture he is at his best.

Beranger has perhaps the most difficult part, but is equal to it. He is one of our finest actors, literally an artist to his finger-tips, for he has an expressive pair of hands and knows how to use them. Also he is adept at putting over points with only the slightest changes in his facial expression." Welford Beaton, The Film Spectator, June 25, 1927.

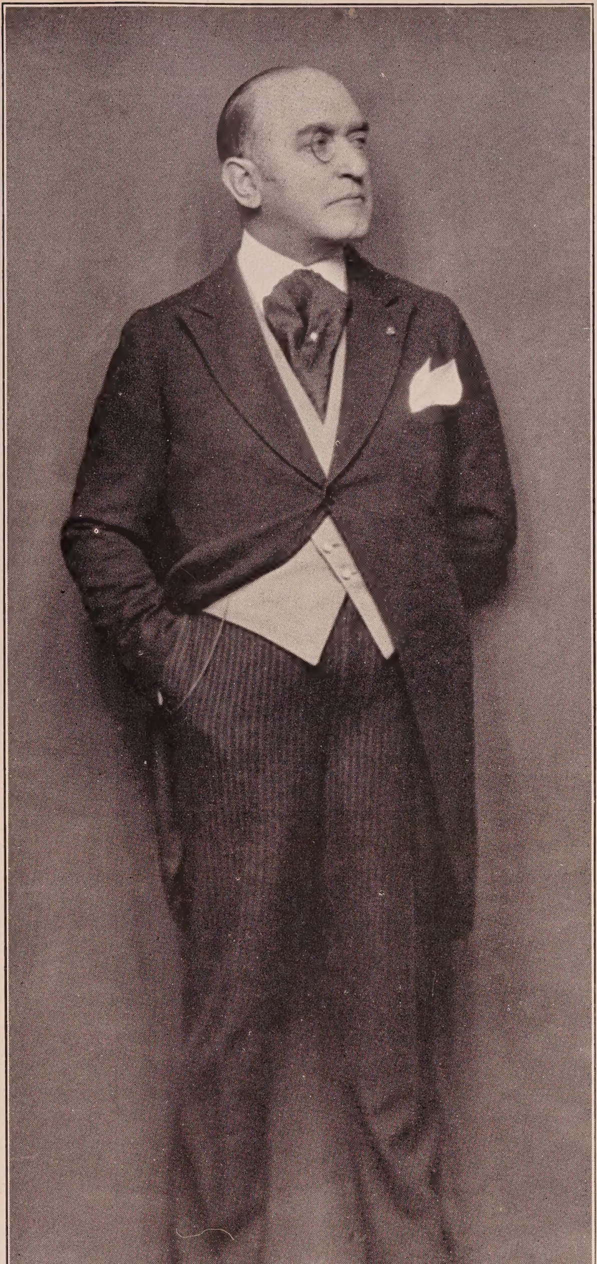
Herbert Cruickshank—N. Y. Morning Telegraph: "Exquisite surprises are in the picture. The characterization of Andre De Segurola, former singer and impresario, who made De Saldo, one of the heavies, a vibrant being as lustily alive as De Segurola himself. It is his first picture—but certainly won't be his last."



Louella O. Parsons—L. A. Examiner: "There is no one in the entire cast any more interesting than Andre De Segurola, the Metropolitan Opera star. It is fitting that he should be cast as De Saldo, the impresario, and his portrayal is one of the high-lights in the entire picture."

WALTER C. PERCIVAL

Lauded by all the L. A. critics—for instance: Florence Lawrence in L. A. Examiner, March 29, said: "High honors for the performance go to Walter C. Percival as the heavy. He is bluff, frank in his villainy and the vital figure of the play."

Monroe Lathrop, in L. A. Express, March 29, said: "One seldom hears a villain of the dirty-dog type roundly applauded, but Walter C. Percival may lay this exceptional tribute to his soul's unction. The audience so signified its appreciation of a fine performance of a detestable role." Etc., etc., etc. Now inviting picture offers.

As "Witzel" Feature Role in White Cargo

ARTHUR CLAYTON

GRanit 5264

GINO CORRADO

Corrado has been on the screen for years, yet has received little attention, while, as a matter of fact, he is a remarkably fine actor. He possesses a Latin fire that imbues his performances with a charm not often seen in the average actor. He understands the gentle art of pantomime.—Whitney Williams, L. A. Times.

Recent Orpheum Criticisms:

The following is one of the criticisms on Mr. Althoff's performance at the Orpheum several weeks ago: Charles Althoff, "The Yankee Fiddler," gives a delineation of a decrepit old man which is little short of remarkable.—L. A. Times, May 30.

"When impersonations are called for, Charlie Althoff steps from the silver sheet to the footlights, and offers one of the cleverest acts of its kind the reviewer has ever seen."—L. A. Herald, June 20th.

"Charles Althoff, "The Yankee Fiddler", is the laugh-wow of the show. This man Althoff is clever."—S. F. Examiner, June 13th.

NICHOLAS SOUSSANIN

Welford Beaton in The Film Spectator, April 16, 1927: Soussanin's performance is a remarkable one. I have seen him previously only in "Hotel Imperial" and know nothing of his background, but am convinced that in him the screen has a really great heavy.

Welford Beaton in The Film Spectator, June 25, 1927: "Service for Ladies"—Nicholas Soussanin appears in but one scene and again impressed me with his ability as an actor. I have seen him on the screen but three times, have never seen him off it, and don't know who he is, or where he came from, but I am willing to go on record as holding the opinion that he is a truly great screen actor. Some day some producer will have sense enough to give him a smashing big part and he will prove to be another big box office bet.

Tuscan Model Weber Grand

The Weber Grand in the Tuscan model is designed in the Italian manner, typical of the work done in Tuscany in the 16th century. Done in finely selected walnut with panels in walnut butt veneer.

THE WEBER
in Decorative Cases

The famous Weber piano may be obtained in special cases of period design. This great instrument has been known for nearly three-quarters of a century as a pianoforte of beautiful action and tone. Now a new milestone in its history is reached with the production of these new cases—superb adaptations of the finest designs of the decorative eras. Made of choicest woods, perfectly finished and of designs originally created by the master furniture makers, Weber pianos are more than musical instruments. They are exquisite pieces of furniture as well, conforming with carefully planned decorative schemes in the home.

The Modes & Manners Shop

...has received

LITTLE BRONZE FIGURES by leading European Sculptors — some signed originals, some perfect reproductions. All have been successful in the Paris salons.

FASCINATING pottery creations—fabulous animals, vases with abstract designs—others in the manner of ancient negro masks.

MODERN furniture created in Barker Bros.' studios—lounge tables and chairs—odd, convenient desks, cabinets, dressing tables.
